TIPS TO MAKE YOUR INVENTORY SUCCESSFUL:

Here are some suggestions:

- Start Now:
Even if your inventory is incomplete, start now
Although it can feel overwhelming, Start with new purchases and add older items later.
- Record specific details such as Sony Bravia 46 inch flat screen TV. Also, record the serial number for this and other expensive electronics and appliances. Otherwise if they are stolen or damaged, you may only receive a low-priced replacement in the insurance settlement.
- Photograph or videotape expensive items or collections. Remember to put the name of the photo image or videotape on your inventory also so you can locate it easily
- Put together lower-priced items such as children's toys, cookware and linens. If you had to buy everything at one time, the costs would add up quickly.
- List items that you frequently take with you, such as a cell phone, laptop computer for example. You may want to record those items on the blank sheets at the end of the inventory.
- Determine the value of items such as jewelry, artwork, collections and other valuables and check with your insurance agent to make sure you have an adequate amount of insurance. Additional coverage for items such as these may require additional insurance known as a "rider."
- Update your inventory often, every year if you can, and especially when you make larger purchases.
